

ENGLISH GRAMMAR NOTES (WITH SIMPLE EXAMPLES)

1. Use Simple Present for Facts

Rule: Use simple present to talk about facts and opinions.

Example:

✓ I understand you.

✗ I am understanding you.

2. Use “Would” to Sound Polite

Rule: “Would” is softer than “will”.

Example:

✓ I would like some help.

✗ I will like some help.

3. Use “Do / Does” for Emphasis

Rule: Use do/does to stress your point.

Example:

✓ I do agree with you.

✗ I agree only.

4. Use Active Voice

Rule: Say who does the action.

Example:

✓ She completed the work.

✗ The work was completed.

5. Use Short Sentences While Speaking

Rule: Short sentences are clearer.

Example:

✓ I disagree. Let me explain.

✗ I disagree because actually I think...

6. Use Linking Words

Rule: Use words like but, because, so.

Example:

✓ I was tired, so I left early.

✗ I was tired. I left early.

7. Use Correct Word Order

Rule: English order = Subject + Verb + Object.

Example:

✓ I met him yesterday.

✗ Yesterday I met him only.

8. Use Articles Carefully

Rule: No article for general ideas.

Example:

✓ She has experience.

✗ She has an experience.

9. Use Pronouns to Avoid Repeating

Rule: Don't repeat the same noun.

Example:

✓ This book is useful. It is popular.

✗ This book is useful. This book is popular.

10. Pause Instead of Saying “Uh, Actually”

Rule: Silence is better than filler words.

Example:

✓ (Pause) I think this will work.

✗ Actually... uh... I think...
