

10 IMPORTANT C1-LEVEL ENGLISH GRAMMAR RULES

- Use Simple Tenses to Sound Confident

Use simple present or past for facts and opinions.

✓ USE: I understand your concern.

✗ DON'T USE: I am understanding your concern.

- Use “Would” to Sound Polite and Professional

“Would” makes suggestions and opinions softer.

✓ USE: I would suggest a different approach.

✗ DON'T USE: I will suggest a different approach. (too direct)

- Use Pronouns to Avoid Repetition

Replace repeated nouns with it, this, that, they.

✓ USE: This policy is effective. It saves time.

✗ DON'T USE: This policy is effective. This policy saves time.

- Use Active Voice for Clear Communication

Say who does the action.

✓ USE: We completed the task today.

✗ DON'T USE: The task was completed today. (less clear)

- Use Linking Words to Connect Ideas

Words like however, because, although improve flow.

✓ USE: The plan is costly; however, it works well.

✗ DON'T USE: The plan is costly. It works well. (no connection)

- Use Modal Verbs for Advice and Possibility

Should, could, might express meaning politely.

✓ USE: You should review the details.

✗ DON'T USE: You must review the details. (too strong)

- Use Natural English Word Order

English follows Subject → Verb → Object.

✓ USE: I spoke to her yesterday.

✗ DON'T USE: Yesterday only I spoke to her.

- Use Short Sentences When Speaking

Short sentences reduce mistakes.

✓ USE: I disagree. Let me explain.

✗ DON'T USE: I disagree because actually what I think is...

- Use Articles Correctly (a / an / the)

No article for general ideas; article for specific ones.

✓ USE: She has experience.

✗ DON'T USE: She has an experience.

✓ USE: She has the experience required for this job.

✗ DON'T USE: She has experience required for this job.

- Use Pauses Instead of Filler Words

Silence is better than unnecessary words.

✓ USE: (Pause) I believe this method works.

✗ DON'T USE: Actually... uh... basically... I believe...
