

Ten Grammar Rules Everyone Should Remember While Speaking English

1. Use Simple Tense for Facts and Opinions

- ✓ I understand your point.
 - ✗ I am understanding your point.
-

2. Use “Would” to Sound Polite

- ✓ I would like to discuss this.
 - ✗ I will like to discuss this.
-

3. Do Not Translate from Your Mother Tongue

- ✓ I met him yesterday.
 - ✗ Yesterday only I met him.
-

4. Avoid Long Sentences While Speaking

- ✓ I disagree. Let me explain.
 - ✗ I disagree because actually what I think is...
-

5. Use Active Voice for Clarity

- ✓ We completed the task.
 - ✗ The task was completed.
-

6. Use Correct Word Order (S + V + O)

✓ She completed the work.

✗ She the work completed.

7. Don't Use Continuous Tense for Feelings

✓ I like this idea.

✗ I am liking this idea.

8. Use Articles Carefully (a / an / the)

✓ She has experience.

✗ She has an experience.

9. Pause Instead of Using Fillers

✓ (Pause) I think this will work.

✗ Actually... uh... I think...

10. Clarity Is More Important Than Fancy English

✓ The plan failed due to budget issues.

✗ The aforementioned strategy encountered fiscal constraints.