

20 Easy Grammar Rules for Daily English Communication

1. What is a Noun

A noun is the name of:

- a person
- a place
- a thing

Examples:

- girl
 - airport
 - bag
-

2. What is a Verb

A verb shows action or work.

Examples:

- run
- speak
- help

👉 Every sentence needs a verb.

3. What is an Adjective

An adjective tells more about a noun.

Examples:

- beautiful girl
- big airport
- kind teacher

4. What is an Adverb

An adverb tells how the work is done.

Examples:

- speak slowly
 - walk carefully
 - answer politely
-

5. Adjective vs Adverb

- Adjective → for noun
- Adverb → for verb

✗ She speaks polite
✓ She speaks politely

6. Use of “A”

Use A before a consonant sound.

Examples:

- a girl
 - a pen
 - a university (you sound)
-

7. Use of “AN”

Use AN before a vowel sound.

Examples:

- an apple
 - an egg
 - an hour (silent h)
-

8. Use of “THE”

Use THE when we talk about a specific thing.

Examples:

- the sun
 - the teacher
 - the airport near my house
-

9. When NOT to use “THE”

Do not use THE with:

- names of people
- names of countries

Examples:

- Riya ~~the~~ Riya
 - India ~~the~~ India
-

10. Vowels in English

Vowels are:

A, E, I, O, U

👉 Vowels help us choose A or AN.

11. Simple Sentence Order

English sentence order is:

Subject + Verb + Object

Example:

- She helps passengers.
-

12. One Sentence = One Idea

Do not put many ideas in one sentence.

✗ I went interview and I was nervous and traffic was bad

✓ I went for the interview. I was nervous.

13. Present Simple Tense

Use it for daily work.

Examples:

- I wake up early.
 - She studies English.
-

14. Present Continuous Tense

Use it for work happening now.

Form: is / am / are + ing

Examples:

- I am learning English.
 - She is preparing for interview.
-

15. Past Tense

Use it for work already finished.

Examples:

- I attended the class.
 - She answered well.
-

16. Use Simple Words

Do not use very difficult words.

✗ I would like to inform you

✓ I want to tell you

17. Making Questions

Use helping verbs.

Examples:

- Do you like English?
 - Are you ready?
 - Did you attend class?
-

18. Use of Prepositions

Prepositions show place or time.

Examples:

- at the airport
 - in the room
 - on Monday
-

19. Avoid Direct Translation

Do not translate from your language.

✗ I am having fear

✓ I am afraid

20. Speak Slowly and Clearly

Correct English + slow speech = good communication.

👉 Confidence is more important than perfect grammar.